KAYAK TO KLEMTU

When Dave Ellis (Evan Adams), a prominent Kitasoo/Xai'Xais activist, passes away, his 14-year-old niece Ella (Ta'Kaiya Blaney) makes it her mission to take his ashes home to Klemtu and stand in his place at a community gathering against a proposed pipeline that would bring oil tankers through their beloved homeland waters. The content of the film is very mild, and it comes with very positive messages of family bonding, environmental conservation, and honouring loved ones.
